1. Standard Schedule

1.1 Core hours

The standard office schedule is 9:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, with a one-hour meal break.

1.2 Team schedules

Teams with operational requirements may use approved schedules different from the standard schedule.

2. Attendance Recording

2.1 Time records

Employees must record attendance through the approved attendance system accurately and on time.

2.2 Corrections

If an attendance record is incorrect, the employee should submit a correction request promptly with an explanation.

3. Lateness and Absence

3.1 Late arrival

Employees who expect to arrive late should notify their manager as soon as possible.

3.2 Unplanned absence

Employees unable to work because of illness or an emergency should notify their manager and follow the applicable leave process.

4. Remote Attendance

4.1 Availability

Employees approved for remote work must remain reachable during agreed working hours and attend scheduled meetings.

4.2 Location

Remote employees must work from an approved location and comply with information-security requirements.

5. Repeated Attendance Issues

5.1 Review

Repeated unexplained lateness, absence, or inaccurate records may be reviewed by the manager and Human Resources.

5.2 Corrective action

Persistent violations may lead to corrective action consistent with company procedures.

6. Exceptions

6.1 Approved exceptions

Flexible schedules, accommodations, and other exceptions must be documented and approved through the appropriate process.
