

CODE OF CONDUCT

Version: 2026.1 | Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Document Type: Human Resources Policy | Classification: Public Training Dataset

1. Purpose

1.1 Standard

The Code of Conduct establishes expected professional behavior and supports a respectful, ethical, and secure workplace.

2. Respectful Workplace

2.1 Respect

Employees must communicate professionally and treat colleagues, customers, and partners with dignity.

2.2 Harassment

Harassment, bullying, intimidation, and retaliation for raising a good-faith concern are prohibited.

3. Conflicts of Interest

3.1 Disclosure

Employees must disclose situations that could reasonably create a conflict between personal interests and company responsibilities.

3.2 Gifts

Employees must follow company rules concerning gifts, hospitality, and benefits from customers, vendors, or partners.

4. Confidential Information

4.1 Protection

Employees must protect confidential business, customer, employee, and technical information.

4.2 Access

Access to systems and information must be used only for authorized business purposes.

5. Use of Company Resources

5.1 Acceptable use

Company devices, accounts, software, and networks must be used responsibly and in accordance with security requirements.

5.2 Records

Employees must not knowingly falsify business records, attendance records, expense claims, or other company information.

6. Reporting Concerns

6.1 Reporting

Employees may raise concerns through their manager, Human Resources, or another approved reporting channel.

6.2 Non-retaliation

Good-faith reporting is protected from retaliation under company policy.

7. Consequences

7.1 Violations

Violations may result in corrective action up to and including termination, subject to applicable procedures and law.

Document control note: This fictional document was created solely as a reproducible training/evaluation dataset for the Enterprise Knowledge Intelligence Copilot project.