This policy describes the process for employee resignation, notice, knowledge transfer, clearance, and access closure.

2. Resignation

2.1 Written notice

Employees must submit written resignation through the approved HR process.

2.2 Notice period

The standard notice period is 30 calendar days unless the employee's employment agreement specifies otherwise or an approved exception applies.

3. Notice Management

3.1 Handover

Employees serving notice must complete reasonable knowledge transfer, documentation, and transition activities.

3.2 Leave during notice

Leave during the notice period requires normal approval and may be restricted where operationally necessary.

4. Company Property

4.1 Return

Employees must return laptops, access cards, equipment, documents, and other company property by the required exit date.

4.2 Data

Company information must not be copied, retained, or transferred to personal accounts or devices.

5. Access Closure

5.1 Accounts

System and application access is disabled according to the company's exit process.

5.2 Security

Employees must not attempt to access company systems after access has been revoked.

6. Final Settlement

6.1 Processing

Final salary, approved reimbursements, applicable leave treatment, and other settlement items are processed according to company procedures and applicable requirements.

6.2 Exit interview

Employees may be invited to participate in an exit interview to provide feedback.

7. Exceptions

7.1 Management approval

Changes to the standard notice process require documented approval from authorized management and Human Resources.
